“ As early teen youngsters, I think Wayne and Roger spent every summer day at our favorite swimming hole of the day; "Luna Lake". And I, among a large circle of other friends, found them to be the guys that seemed always in the center of our favorite companions.

Wayne was always friendly, outgoing, and helpful through our "growing up" years.

After marriages and children for us both, life carried us down different paths, and I only saw Wayne every few years, and finally, it seems there was nearly 10 years or more when I had lost contact with Wayne completely.

Just "living life" itself, usually becomes a full time job for us all; and I do believe Wayne lived his to it's fullest !!

I will relate an incident with Wayne after a long absence, when we had both reached our sixties.

Wayne told me he had lived his life "far and wide";...and he absolutely would not change a minute of it.

We should all hope we could have the same sentiments.

Condolences to the family.

Kind regards, Ronnie Graham

“ I have known Wayne, brother Roger and Sis Sandy for many years, with great memories of dinner with the family at CE's in 1955 to playing ball in City League and at GW. We grew apart after I left Danville but our friendship was renewed every time I saw him between then and the last time, almost as if no time had passed. Wayne was a smart, tough and a fun guy to be with, always a great prankster. Rest in peace my friend and may God bless all of your family.

Thinking back on our last conversation gives me much comfort and thinking ahead reminds me that heaven is not so far away. o Thank you Lord for the kind heart and gentle spirit that indwelled Wayne, for I know that it came from you, now please Lord, give peace and comfort to all those who love him and will miss him since he has moved to his heavenly home. “ My first memory of Wayne, was in 1974, I was 15 and was hired to babysit for Eddie and Jennifer. The kids were a joy, and the pay was excellent.

There have been many times over the years that we helped each other and I am thankful that I knew him.
Rest Easy Wayne....
