“ Prindle you and Ed are among the sweetest most giving people I have ever known. You loved each other dearly and loved the whole of Keeling almost as much. Both of you considered the entirety of Keeling your family. There were no better neighbors ever!! Your generosity of heart as you were the Hands and Feet of JESUS to so many. My prayers continue for you my dear Prindle and the rest of the family. Ed, Mr. "Mayor of Keeling" will be dearly missed. Prindle, I know and understand how bittersweet Ed's going Home is for you. You have been forced, by the circumstances, to helplessly lose him to this disease one little fragment at a time. While there is relief that the Earthly suffering is over, there is also the finality of his Earthly presence, the man you met, loved and married being gone. I have found that NOTHING, Absolutely NOTHING prepares us for their final Earthly breath. I rejoice with you and the family that Ed is now breathing well, not suffering and ALIVE with JESUS. I rejoice in our knowledge that our loved ones are not lost to us for we know where they are, where to find them. They are worshipping at JESUS feet and waiting for us. I love you Sweet Prindle. I know GOD will continue to comfort and sustain you as you now walk out this path of the journey.
