“ Meg, Cheryl, Sandy and Tabatha: I'm so very sorry for your loss. I have so many great memories of Ed. I drove my first nail under his tutelage. He taught me skills that I still use to this day, some 43 years later. His patience and guidance with me were invaluable. I still remember him telling me "there's nothing you can do wrong, tear up, or break that I can't fix" which is a skill I too developed thanks to him. May the gift of time, friends, and prayer help you through this most difficult time. -Herman Lynch Jr
