

Elizabeth M. Scarce

October 3, 1927 - April 10, 2021

Elizabeth M. Scarce, 93, of Danville, VA she went home to be with her Lord on Saturday, April 10, 2021 at her residence after being in declining health for several months.

Mrs. Scarce was born in Durham, North Carolina on October 3, 1927 a daughter of the late Mary Morgan Lane and Garnett L. Morgan. She spent most of her life in the Danville area where she worked for the human resources department at Dan River Mills for twenty-seven years. She then went on to work as the manager of the apparel department at Barbee Fabrics for 25 years. She loved her Lord and Savior and shared her faith through her love of music. Over a thirty-year period, she lead church choirs at Melville Ave, Woodberry Hills, and Rivermont Baptist, where she was also a member. In her spare time, she enjoyed being creative, baking cakes, and taking care of her pets, Buttons and Pockets.

On June 3, 1946 she married the love of her life, Floyd Shields Scarce, Jr. who died on November 22, 1995.

In addition to her husband she was predeceased by her brother David Morgan.

She is survived by nieces, Lori Touart (John), Lydia Landrum (J.), Cindy

Pegram (Steve), and Teresa Morgan; her dear friend, Julian Bryant; and numerous great nieces, great nephews, and great great nieces and nephews.

A graveside service will be held on Monday, April 12, 2021 at 1:00 PM in Danville Memorial Gardens with Pastor Wayne Johnson and Pastor Joel Fletcher officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society or a charity of your choice.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Scarce family

“ Elizabeth was such a sweet lady. She was the kind of person who would do whatever she could to help you--quietly, without attracting attention to herself. She was a great friend to us. Heaven's choir has gained another beautiful voice.
