“ Jean was one of the kindest, loving, hardworking that I remember. When I worked with her I had the best time and made good tips there. May God bless your family and friends and he be with you all in your time of need. The pearly gates of Heaven Angels have welcomed her home.

“ Thinking of different memories in which Jean touched our lives from McDonalds, to family get togethers, to her tomato garden, and just going out to have fun. She was always nice and full of life!

Sending Prayers!

Love,

Nancy and April

“ My grandma is one of the most beautiful classiest ladies I've ever met. Her dark, unfiltered sense of humor kept the room always laughing. She always reminded me Elizabeth Taylor, and she always told me I was pretty. Her house was always immaculate. and she would never hesitate to cook me some fat back when I came to visit and if I said, I like something she would try to give it to you. I could listen to my grandma stories all day long she could tell me everything about her childhood all of her best memories she loved being famous and being in the spotlight, but she hated to have her picture taken. I have so many great memories of her and I know she loved me. And I am forever grateful for having such a wonderful grandmother. Love you little girl always and forever Tiffany.
