

Elva Farmer Trembley

March 24, 1947 - December 25, 2024

Elva Farmer Trembley, 77, of Ringgold, VA passed away on Wednesday, December 25, 2024 at Sovah Health in Danville.

Elva was born in Danville, VA on March 24, 1947, a daughter of the late Mailon Lee Farmer and Eloise Rowland Farmer. She spent most of her life in the Ringgold area where she worked in the 1B Weave at Dan River Mills. She was of the Seventh-day Adventist faith.

Elva spent many years creating Santa and elf costumes for Ballou Park and the parade. She was also a passionate coupon collector.

Survivors include her son, Christopher Michael Farmer and his wife Tammy of Ringgold, VA; grandchildren, Jacob Frank Farmer, Christopher Mailon Farmer and Michael Riddle; great grandchildren, Winston and Watson Riddle; and her sister, Nancye Gail Farmer Baker of Charlotte, NC.

In addition to her parents she was predeceased by a foster son, Ricky Oakley; and a brother, Frank Mailon Farmer.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the family.
