“ When Jean and I lived next door to each other in Virginia, we would sit outside on a beautiful afternoon, have a coffee and watch our kids while they played. I think that, at that time, Jean's 3 children and my two youngest were all under 10 years old. We really got to know one another since we spent a lot of time together. Jean was a wonderful neighbor and a great friend. I will truly miss her especially not getting my annual letter and card at Christmas. Good friends are a treasure. Lots of love to my Angel friend.
