“ Aunt Emma was one of the sweetest, most caring and thoughtful human beings to walk the face of the earth. She faced many challenges throughout her life, but with each challenge, she kept on going - never ever giving up. She has been such an inspiration to me, and I am so thankful I was able to tell her this a few days ago. What a beautiful legacy she leaves in each of her amazing 5 children and each of their families. I love you all and I am praying for God's comfort for each of you during this very sad time.

“ To all the family, we remember Emma as one who has left a lasting imprint on many lives. She was always a faithful caregiver at heart and she was a blessing to our family in so many ways, especially for her help in the care of her sister, Annie Mae.

May you find comfort, knowing a legacy continues in the memories you share, a bond that deepens as we honor a life well lived. Sharing in your sorrow and trusting God to provide the comfort you need at this time.

Love, H. B. and Sheila Hodnett
