“ I first knew Faye while living in the Whitmell community. I was Patricia Payne at that time. I knew Faye's entire family. I later reconnected with Faye at American National Bank. We enjoyed many conversations & it was a real joy to reminisce with her. At that time I was married with a name change of Patricia P. Burton. I now extend my deepest sympathy to Faye's family. She always had a smile & I know she loved the Lord! You all will be in my thoughts & prayers!❤️🙏. God Bless each of you!

“ I first met Faye at American National Bank in 1974. Faye was manager of the Proof Department. She was loved and respected by all her coworkers at the bank. In 1990, Faye's daughter Robyn and my brother Tony Terry married at Faye's church, Whitmell Christian Church. Robyn's daughter Brittany could not believe that uncle Dave and Grandma Faye worked together. Faye will be missed by her family and friends. She was a special person.
