

Florene Rose Mullins

May 14, 1933 - December 10, 2017

Florene Rose Mullins, 84, of 231 South Ridge Street, Danville, VA, died December 10, 2017 in SOVAH of Danville after being in declining health for the past two months.

Mrs. Mullins was born in Clintwood, VA, on May 14, 1933, a daughter of the late Alex Rose and the late Cynthia Ramey Rose. She had lived all of her life in Danville where she was a homemaker and she was of the Baptist Faith.

Mrs. Mullins was the widow of the late Jim Mullins who died in 2000.

Mrs. Mullins is survived by two daughters, Jennifer M. Gusler and husband Wayne, of Danville, VA, and Kathy M. Bates of Knightdale, NC, and significant other, Randy Echols of Danville, VA; two brothers, Connie Rose, of Dillwyn, VA, and Donnie Rose, of Danville, VA; three grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

A Private Funeral Service for Mrs. Mullins will be conducted on Tuesday, December 12, 2017. The family would like to express their sincere thank you to Dr. Taylor and the entire staff of the 5th Floor of SOVAH of Danville.

The family suggest that in lieu of flowers, memorial donations be made to a charity of choice.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Mullins family.

“ Flo was a great friend to me when I got married and lived on the same road. Our husbands worked second shift so we hung out. Her and Millie used to cook greens and cornbread I did not like that. She loved my son Jonathan. So sorry for your loss I know she in heaven with Jim. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Robin And Gary Moore
