“ Frances was such a sweet, precious person..She was my Sunday School teacher for many years and also a dear friend..I always called her "My Lady"..She and J.T. sat in front of us in church and we looked forward to seeing them..I know she is rejoicing in Heaven with her precious husband. They were very loved by many people..I remember the beautiful smile on her face one day at the nursing home when I carried her an adorable baby doll..She didn't remember me but that look of joy on her face was so special to me..
