“ Heaven has gained another angel today. A dear lady that loved her husband, children and all of her relatives. Frances was so kind and so well respected in Laurel Grove Baptist Church for many years. She was always helping prepare those good home cooked meals to feed our congregation. Growing up with her 3 children and all of the different roles she held in the church bring back such good childhood memories. She never met a stranger and welcomed everyone to the church. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Tate and Alderson family and the remainder of the family and extended family during this time of grief. May God Bless All of You. Love Ruby and David Rogers
