Dear Mary, Hallie, Melanie Lynn, Donna and Lauren: We were shocked and deeply saddened upon hearing the tragic news of Frankie's sudden taking from this earth. We do not use the word "loss" because he is not lost, but living in Heaven with God, our Heavenly Father, our Savior Jesus Christ, his Dad and Grandparents. It is appropriate to mourn/hurt, to be sad and to shed tears, as we do, too. Remember, Jesus wept. We do not have the words to adequately provide comfort, but God's Holy Spirit is the Comforter, and our prayer is that His Holy Spirit will abide with you, and you will feel His presence during this time. May our loving Heavenly Father bless each of you with His love and that you will find comfort in knowing that Frankie was a Christian and is in his Heavenly home. We remember Frankie as a handsome, kind and gentle person. Love, Betty and Benny Shires

“ I don't think that I ever talked to Frankie without laughing at least once at something he did or said. His unending positivity and vivaciousness were contagious- you couldn't not be happy around him. I am absolutely heartbroken and shell-shocked by his death. For anyone who knew him, this is a tragic and genuine loss. The world just got a lot less funny.

My thoughts and prayers are with Mary, Hallie, and Melanie. I cannot fathom how difficult this must be.
