He was my stepfather (my only remembered father) for a regrettably short time. I wish it could have been my choice to have him in my life longer. But he WAS there for me as a teenager when a father-figure was required the most. And there is barely a life event now (that passes me continually) without me remembering his wise advice given to me at that crucial time.

“ Memories of my Uncle Gary abound with laughter, his good nature, his tenacity, and his love for Aunt Lois. I will always have good memories of him. A correction to the obituary is that his brother who preceded him in death was Eugene Richard Sigsbey, not Roy, who was in fact one of his nephews. My heart goes out to you, Aunt Lois, we will all miss him.
