“ My first memory of Gene was around 1971 or 72 we had just moved into the neighbor hood and he and Pat came over to greet us later in 3rd grade we all met before school one day and went to the local swimming hole it was at least 2 miles from our house we were 8 years old my brother Michael had gotten himself in a undercurrent and Gene saved him from drowning. Later as we got older muscle cars were all the thing back then Gene had a blue Superbee we ran up and down Broadway in Richmond virginia drag racing. Gene was a person you could always count on of if you needed him with out a doubt if you called he would come. He was a good man may he rest in peace.
