Tribute Wall

“ I've known this quiet, gentle man since 1985 when our lives were connected by the marriage of Andy, his son, to Nancy, our daughter. We shared the joy of receiving our two grandchildren into our families and see them grow up and move on. We've shared the grief of saying goodbye to our beloved spouses. We've done all these years of Christmas and graduations. George leaves a huge hole in the lives of Andy and Dan and their families and his influence of logic and kindness and quiet patience remain to bless his children. God bless them with that peace that passes understanding.
