

George A. Scott Jr.

September 16, 1947 - February 1, 2024

George A. Scott, Jr., 76, of Danville, VA passed away on Thursday, February 1, 2024 at Sovah Health in Danville after being in declining health for the last ten years.

Mr. Scott was born in Des Moines, Iowa on September 16, 1947, a son of the late George A. Scott, Sr. and Marion Scott. He proudly served his country in the United States Air Force and then went on to work as a machine operator for Times Fiber for 35 years until his retirement.

In his spare time, he enjoyed making different scale models and was a member of the Danville Model Railroad Club. Mr. Scott embraced life and was a humble man who will be deeply missed.

On May 18, 1992 he married Edwina Hart Scott.

In addition to his loving wife, Mr. Scott is survived by his sister, Sandra Hayes and her husband Henry of Des Moines, Iowa; his brother and sister in laws who were more like siblings to him, David and Judith Hart of Pittsylvania County; Charles and Joy Hart of Raleigh, NC; Cindy and Joey Bryant of Pittsylvania County.

He was predeceased by his parents and his sister-in-law, Martha Cox.

A private graveside service will be conducted at the Danville National Cemetery.

Memorial donations can be made to a charity of your choice in memory of Mr. Scott.

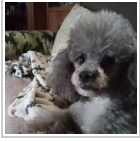

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Scott family.

“ Scotty and I started our first band together in 1966, while serving in the USAF at Dover, Delaware. His love of music was contagious, as I am still playing music to date. These days I am playing Praise and Worship music in church every Sunday. See you in Glory. Jule Kidd “ Edwina and family, I'm so very sorry for your loss. Scott was a kind person and I'll never forget the time spent together listening to him thumping that custom bass guitar. I treasure all the memories and pray that your sweet memories can carry you through this difficult time. You are all in my prayers.
