“ Belle was always quiet and soft spoken but had a smile for everyone. Our family attended the same church so I grew up with Marie and knew the other children. James and Belle would bring lots of homegrown vegetables for our family in the summers. Several years in the fall, they would have a pig roast and have us over to join in. Their farm was a fun place to go for me and my nephew Dale. I have very fond memories of Belle who, I discovered could be very fun loving. My condolences and love to all her children.
