

Geraldine Morris

July 10, 1925 - November 4, 2010

Mrs. Geraldine Parrish "Tootsie" Marshall Morris, age 85, passed away Thursday evening, November 4, 2010 in Roman Eagle Memorial Home after a decline in health for the past twenty years. Mrs. Morris was born on July 10, 1925 in Danville, a daughter of the late Irvin Carson Marshall and the late Alcora Mitchell Marshall. She had lived her entire life in Danville where she was the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue for the Commonwealth of Virginia for thirty seven years. Prior to joining the Christ Episcopal Church, she was a member of Moffett Memorial Baptist Church where she was a choir member. She was a member of the Episcopal Church Women. She was a life member of the Danville Humane Society. She was married to George Dallas Morris, Jr., who predeceased her on September 10, 2009. Mrs. Morris is survived by two sons, John David Morris and wife, Jean of Durham, N.C., Dr. George D. Morris III and wife, Glenda of Danville, one brother, Marsh M. Marshall and wife, Rev. Betty Marshall of Gretna. A graveside service will be conducted at 2:00 pm Sunday, November 7, 2010 in Highland Burial Park with Rev. Betty Marshall and Father Samuel Colley- Toothaker officiating. The family request that memorials may be made to the Danville Humane Society, P.O. Box 3352, Danville, Va. 24543 The family will be at the residence of Dr. & Mrs. George D. Morris III, 292 Oak Creek Drive, Danville. Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Morris Family.