“ May these words recorded at Isaiah 25:8 be of much comfort to you and your family during this time of deep sorrow. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken |it|," "New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures"

“ *To Barbara,Phyllis,Larry,Ray
I am so sorry for your loss.Your mother meant a lot to me growing up and though the miles have kept us from seeing one another very often, Your family has always been a blessing to me.Gertie was one of favorite people growing up.She used to laugh at me and say " Patricia you are a crazy girl.I spent so many nites at your house it is a wonder she didn't get sick of me.Gertie always treated me like I was one of her children, she would fuss at me (when I needed it) and as I grew older she would give me advice.There are are so many childhood memories,I have with Phyllis and Barbara and Gertie Mae that I will treasure.Just know my thoughts and prayers are with you. Love,Your friend Patricia* “ Gertie Mae was a special lady with such a beautiful voice. I will always remember standing behind us at church singing..always smiling. We will miss her but we know she is smiling and singing in Heaven now.

“ All my love to Ray, Larry, Phyllis and Barbara, Grandchildren and great grandchildren and spouses. You have lived a life with two of the greatest people that this world has to offer. We loved them as family, and consider each and everyone of you as family. Gertie and Willard are walking on streets of gold together, looking down at you, proud of what a wonderful family they have, and the good work that their love has provided for each of you. God Bless.

“Gertie was such a dear woman and she will be missed by anyone that ever had the honor of knowing her. Gertie's smile could light us an entire room. I so enjoyed the few times that me and my Aunt Amelia visited Gertie and Willard. They always made you feel at home. Gertie and Willard's love for each other was amazing to observe. It was and is a love that all married people should strive to attain. The twinkle in their eyes never left for each other. How blessed were they and their children. May their children and all of their family find comfort in knowing that they are together in heaven and that twinkle is still there. May God bless you and give you great comfort in this sad time.
