“ Dearest Glenda,

You were the most remarkable person...beautiful and strong, talented and capable, dependable and trustworthy. Your passing has left a huge hole in this world, the likes of which no one can fill. I am sorry for the strenuous struggle you had to endure that ended your wonderful life, but I am thankful that at last you are at peace and much deserved rest.

I will see you again when Jesus comes, but until then I will have to rely on memories of beautiful blonde hair, the name of the good witch from the Wizard of Oz (for which I was always jealous), quick wit and humor, a personality like Daddy's, hands like Mom's, a Figure like Dolly Pardon (of which I was also jealous), an amazing cook, excellent bowler, the best employee any company ever had, and that "if you're not going to do it right, don't do it at all" work ethic.

You were a model mom and wife. Katie is a fitting tribute to your own character as I see in her the same persistence and work ethic you had. Perry never left your side all those sad, heart rending months because of his great love for you, a love you returned to him. I will say again, you are an amazing person.

When Jesus returns to this earth, and as the last morsels of the great marriages supper of the Lamb are cleared off the table by the Angels of God, you will hear Jesus exclaim, "Finally! We get to Glenda's pies!" Amen! I love you with all that is in me...
