“ It is with great sadness that I write these words. Greg and I were cousins, family that were separated by miles. Although they did live here in Ky for a short time, it was during that time I got to know my cousin the most. He was so kind, he had a smile that would light up his whole face, and his laugh was infectious. I'll never forget that laugh. Greg and I use to eat lunch together when we were in high school. People actually thought we were dating. I was quick to correct them, but he didn't seem to mind. He was a gentle spirit, much like his Father before him. Greg your family that is spread across the country will so miss you. I celebrate with you as you reunite with your Mom and Dad, and others of our family that have gathered there to greet you. Pam and Amin, you have lost greatly and my heart breaks for you. Please know we are lifting you up in prayer.

See ya soon, Greg!
