“ Gwyneth was a great person and such a wonderful helper and friend to me while I was music director at Vandola. She always lent a hand with everything we had going on from Children's Choir, VBS programs, Christmas Pageants, Easter Pageants and Senior Adult Choir - she was always there to assist. My thoughts and prayers to her family. May God richly bless each of you during this sad time.

“ Wendy and the rest of the family,
This news makes me so sad. Your mother was such a lovely person with such a Godly heart. I got to know her so much better since moving back to town and always treasured our conversations. Many people besides your family will mourn her loss! My prayers are with “ I met Gwyn when I went to work at the bank in 1969. She was my co-worker for five years, my 'banker' for years after that and my friend for all years since then. We bowled on a team together, went to the beach together and had lunch together whenever we could. I would see her fairly often whenever I was visiting the hospital since she was a volunteer there (just another example of her kind heart). We had dinner a couple years ago and that was the last time that I saw her but we enjoyed 'catching up' while we were together. I was working with her when Braxton was born....she was so excited to have a baby boy. But, she loved him and all her girls and of course, L.B. for all their years of marriage. I will miss my kind, golden hearted friend even though we didn't see much of each other in the last number of years.

LB, Wendy, Paige and Braxton...I will not be able to attend the funeral because of a doctors appointment in Durham but my thoughts and prayers will be with you all that day and the days to come. I know you will miss her dearly.

Take care, Connie

“ We only need to look at the respect and love Gwyneth's children had for her to recognize that she was a mother who loved God and loved her children deeply. The lives of her children, Wendy, Paige, Braxton and her dear Denise, also speak to the love and care she gave. My love and sympathy to all of her family.
