

Harold Loman Tate

September 19, 1948 - January 31, 2026

Harold Loman Tate, 76, of Sutherlin passed away on Saturday, January 31, 2026 at his residence.

Harold was born on September 19, 1948, a son of the late Jesse Walter Tate and Mary Wilson Tate.

Harold was of the Baptist faith and formerly attended Westover Baptist Church. He loved to visit the beach. He enjoyed watching sports, especially NASCAR and baseball, as he was a New York Yankees fan.

Harold is survived by his sister, Mary Brumfield and a niece, Joan Walker (Donald) and her son, David Wilson. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews and a daughter in Texas.

In addition to his parents, Harold was preceded in death by a sister, Betty Allen and three brothers, L.B. Tate, Jesse Walter Tate, Jr. and Lee Tate.

A graveside service will be held on Tuesday, February 10, 2026 at 2:00 p.m. at Danville Memorial Gardens with Rev. Dr. Doug Barber officiating.

Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Homes, Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Tate family.

“ We grew up seeing him during visits at his mother’s house. When he came home from being in service, he had a difficult time from the horrors he experienced. He stayed in solitude most of the time. But when he did communicate, he was soft spoken and I can’t ever remember him being unkind. I hope he can rest in peace and know his family misses him.
