*Harriet was my 1st cousin on dad's side of the family. After many years of not hearing from her or her hearing from me, we got reacquainted when my mom passed away in 2009. Harriet and her mom aunt Eunice came to the luncheon at Ring gold Baptist church the day of mom's funeral. Since then we have talked on phone five or six times a year. It made my heart so glad to get to talk to her and Remanince about the good old days and updates on Ringgold and Danville. 2021 before Christmas we talked and was so uplifting. I know she was a good wife, mom, and grandma. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you.

Harriett was Dillard's wife when I worked for him from 12-17, working alongside Tommy at Lester Home Center, a bit terrified of Dillard then. From ages 22-28, Dillard was my boss again with 20 years on the board together. There were coconut cakes and customer appreciation trips and warmth and kindness always from Harriett. She probably touched my life the very most as the #1 most active grandparent at Carlisle, always taking time to make Lanie and Colin feel extra special. We send an extra hug to Jamison and Allison from Colin's many years as a part of this special, close class of friends. Our heart and prayers go out to you all. Heaven has gained a new angel!! Lanie can't make it in from Denver but asked to send her love to Dillard. She said "Harriett always made events feel special and stayed in touch through the years. She was sweet and much appreciated."
