“ Growing up, I spent more time at his house with his family, than I did at my own house.. He was always up for watching some wrestling on tv with us and treated me like part of the family.. Helped get me on working with him when I was young and needed a job.. In my heart, He and his family, will always be family to me.. I am grateful to have known him & learn early life lessons from him.. God bless you & always the family will be in my thoughts and prayers
