“ We feel very fortunate to have been able to spend several family dinners with all of you and your Mom over the past few years. She was one of a kind. What a strong woman who raised 3 great adults who are now Grandparents themselves. I am so happy you were able to give her such a wonderful Birthday party this year. I know she didn't eat much at the dinners, but I remember she always liked dessert. Heaven got brighter when your Mom entered the gates. May you find comfort and peace in your wonderful memories of your sweet Mom, prayers and much love, Jean and Terry Darby

Sorry for your loss, she was a wonderful person, probably singing: In the Misty Moonlight, well maybe not.

*Hi Janet, Kathy and Larry,
I spoke to Shelby this morning and she told me that Dean died. I remember her and all of you at Mercy Seat in my younger years. She always seemed such a happy lady and I'm sure she was a wonderful mother for you all. Shelby said she had just celebrated her 97th birthday! I know it's hard to lose a mother.
My sympathies to you.
