“ Many condolences to the Calloway family at this time. Many your memories help to ease your pain and discomfort. The death of a loved one is ever easy and can even feel unnatural. We do not want to lose our loved ones to death, nor do we ourselves want to reach that end. The bible's message had been a comfort to many and may it be a comfort to you as well. In the scriptures it says "He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to him. (LUKE 20:37,38) This gives us a glimpse of the hope we have for our dead loved ones. That they will not remain dead forever. In fact Jesus said at John 5:28,29 Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." So even Jesus had hope that the dead would not stay forever in that condition. If you would like to read more of this bible based hope please feel free. <http://www.jw.org/en/publications/books/what-hope-for-dead-loved-ones/1101987030/>

“ Our heavenly Father tells us at Psalms 34:18, he is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. Don't be afraid he is with you.
