“ It is in great sorrow that I share your loss. I know it is an unimaginable experience. I loved your mother immeasurably. Helen was such a great prayer warrior! She would always share with me things that we needed to be in prayer about for family & community.

Helen was dear to many individuals. She would always make time to speak to/chat with folks she knew - never too busy or ignoring anyone who crossed paths with her. Billy loved when she came to the shop because she was never in a hurry and always showed compassion to and for all.

I know your hearts are so broken to lose her as she finally attained her life's goal... May the memories you have of and with her help you to adjust daily. Every memory is worth more than gold!

Helen loved each of you beyond measure! Your mother was a great ambassador for Christ always about her work of sharing Jesus and the "Plan of Salvation" with everyone. There is no doubt, God smiled upon her as she entered Heaven's Gate and her presence makes it a more beautiful dwelling place.

Please know that each of you are in our thoughts and prayers and we extend our sympathy and condolences during this time and experience. Helen will be missed for a very long time by our family also. Love from The Billy Stowe Family
