“ I grew up with Lee in Westover Hills. We went to Coates, Blairs, and Tunstall together. We played together as boys and in our teens played football. I have a picture of him standing with me at our graduation from THS. One other thing I remember about him is that Lee was a pretty good drummer. We lost touch after THS. When I finished school I returned to the Danville area to serve a number of churches. We connected again and he took care of our cars. This is such a shock and a surprise. I am sad to hear this. Blessed rest, my friend.
