Hilda was a sweet lady, as were all the Cox women. Growing up, I saw a lot more of Hilda and her family and not so much as we grew up, but I always remembered her sweet smile and her kindness! She will be sorely missed! RIP Hilda!

“ I can't remember not knowing the Cox family. We were in school and community together. Our parents were friends in their young years. In my first job after school, I worked with Hilda at Nabisco. Recently I had been visiting her at Brookdale. My last visit two weeks before Christmas was good; she smiled several times as I talked to her and her white hair looked so pretty. Please know that me and my family are remembering you with our Love, Prayers, and deepest Sympathy.
