“ Hildred was the ONE TO GO TO on Shelton genealogy. She was a great help to me, straightening out mistakes I had made from a cousin's book "The Sheltons". She was an astute and brilliant teacher of climbing a family tree, and she will be missed.

“ For years and years I always enjoyed Hildred and Mabel at Uncle Buck and Aunt Hilda Shelton house for holiday meals. Hildred was well read and could talk almost about anything. She knew a great deal about history and genealogy. Prayers.

“ Hildred was a quiet and very smart woman. She sort of liked to be alone but she was always gracious when visited. She was a faithful caregiver for her Mother.
