“ Dear Lee and family,

I just learned of your Dad's passing and want to send my heartfelt condolences. He was a dear friend, and we shared many great times together in the Underwriters Association through the 1980's. I could not imagine anyone who could fill his shoes as the National Committeeman. When he was in office you could count on him getting the job done, always with a smile on his face and in his heart. He will truly be missed.

“ Dear Sue,
As part of your Staunton River family, my reminder for you is this:
"Those who wait for the Lord will gain new strength; they will mount up with wings like eagles, they will run and not get tired. They will walk and not become weary." Isaiah 40:31. "Surely our griefs He Himself bore and our sorrows He carried." Isaiah 53:4 My prayer is that Jesus will remind you that He already carried the grief and the sorrow and is beside you right now to help you with the load. He is beneath you with His wings to hold you when you just can't do it any more. He is your strength when you think you have none, and your joy even in the midst of your sorrow. I stand beside Lisa, letting you know that we are ready to help at school with whatever you need. But we are here, also, to hold you, Joe, and Sam in our prayers. We love you.
