“ I realize all too well the pain your hearts are experiencing at and in this moment and will continue to experience until you are Home with Jackie. The returning Home of someone we love I have long considered the epitome of the term bittersweet. We KNOW so many Beautiful Truths. We KNOW:  they are fully completely healed  NO pain, sadness, rejection, worries of any kind  they are rejoicing with abandonment at the feet of JESUS with all the loved ones and friends who reached Home before them.  Their joy inexplicable  for us left behind, they wait with great expectation. Despite all the aforementioned, that we are confident of and in, without doubt, because they are The promises of JESUS, our hearts are devastated. It doesn't seem real, isn't fair, makes no sense, etc. I have dealt with a lot of pieces/chunks of my heart going Home for many years. The last 10 years exceptional challenged, 49 family and friends returned to Heaven. However, 2024 was the worst: my 3 siblings and my precious youngest daughter. The journey you must now travel is fraught with pain that out of nowhere will knock the air out of you. But, you white knuckle cling to the hem of JESUS' garment, focus on the good memories and work to let go of the not so good ones. This will help to keep you blanketed in HIS comfort, peace, grace, mercy and even joy. Talk to your ABBA father about it all, no one understands better. You can even be angry, GOD understands that as well. Along with JESUS I also run to and immerse myself in music. Here are some songs that have benefitted me: My Prayer For You: Alisa Turner  Well Done: The Afters, See you again: West Life  Scars in Heaven: Casting Crowns Now you belong to Heaven - Mari Olse Go Rest High on that Mountain: Vince Gill  Dancing in the sky - Angel 's perspective: Mandi Fisher  Heaven Visiting Angel's Reply: Mandi Fisher  I truly am so very sorry Jackie has gone Home. Her bright smile and laughter will be missed. Prayers of comfort and strength for All who knew and loved her. She touched in positive ways the lives of many, she leaves an Amazing legacy.

“ Dear Jon, Josh, & family,
We were so deeply sorry to hear of the passing of your precious mom following her brief illness. She was so very fortunate to have her sons & family by her side thru every step of the sad goodbye. We can mark the passing of a remarkable lady & a loyal friend to so many. Jackie was greatly respected by all who knew her. I'm thankful for all the precious memories of her.

As friend and co-worker:

Jackie's career in nursing touched countless lives. She leaves behind an inspiring legacy. She was one of the most dedicated, loyal, & caring nurses I had the pleasure of meeting. We worked together in CCU years ago where Jackie was a bright light in a dim world to her patients & their families. If I had to choose an epitaph for Jackie, it would be, "well done thy good & faithful servant".

“ Jackie was a high school friend. Always had a smile on her face especially when cheering for the Wildcats! I was the manager for the Cookie Company in the mall and I had not signed up to come to one of our high school class reunions. She was so kind and sweet - insisting that I come to the reunion. I did and we had a blast. Only a few chance encounters thereafter. Sending my heartfelt sympathy and praying that the family is surrounded with God's comforting love at this difficult time. “ It so difficult to believe that she has really departed this earth. Her exuberance for living was only over shadowed by her love of family. She and other ACC basketball fans spent many hours virtually texting and watching the games. If the Duke game was close, she'd end texting from her bathroom hide away. Couldn't bear to watch. She was a character and will be sorely missed. My deepest condolences and prayers for her family and close friends.
