

Jacob "Sammy" Samuel Sigmon

April 26, 1943 - August 29, 2023

Jacob Samuel "Sammy" Sigmon, age 80, passed away peacefully at his home on Monday, August 29th, after several years of declining health.

Sammy was born in Danville, VA on April 26th, 1943 to Thomas M. Sigmon and Bertha Q. Sigmon, both of whom predeceased him. He lived the first half of his life in the Schoolfield community before moving to Pelham, NC where he was residing at the time of his death. A 1963 graduate of George Washington High School, Sammy worked at Dan River Mills before becoming a Danville City Fireman.

Sammy was a quiet but fun loving guy. He loved to hunt, but his real passion was restoring and rebuilding Harley Davidson Motorcycles. He was an avid supporter of the NRA and a member of the Scorpions Motorcycle Club. He cherished his memories of his rides with his friends, especially to Daytona Beach, FL. He would tell his niece "as soon as he got better" he was getting back on the road again.

In addition to his parents, Sammy was predeceased by brothers Daniel T. Sigmon, Wiseman L. Sigmon, and sisters Goldie S. Sawyer and Lou S. Michaels.

He is survived by his caregiver and niece, Lisa M. Cash (Joe) of Danville, and nephew Scott B. Michaels of Greensboro, NC. He is also survived by great nephew DJ Jones of Morrisville, NC and great niece Taylor J. Miller (Evan) of Charlotte, NC.

A graveside celebration of Sammy's life will be held Monday, September 4th at 11:00 am at Schoolfield Cemetery with members of the Danville City Fire Department Honor Guard in attendance.

The family will receive friends immediately following the service.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

“ Sending lots of thoughts and prayers to the family. I know how much he loves riding bikes with his buddies. He was so sweet and kind. I remember the rides that all of us use to go on. His real close riding buddy William Slim Clayton thought alot of him. They shared many great and Happy memories together, whether it was riding or just visiting each other. May your great memories comfort you in this sad time. Keeping on riding Sammy
