

James "Jim" Edward Hogan

May 13, 1946 - September 26, 2019

James "Jim" Hogan, age 73 of 1260 Ringgold Church Road, Ringgold, Virginia, went to his Eternal Home on September 26, 2019 at Sovah Health, Danville following a four day illness. The only child of Louise Elliott Hogan and Ovid Ramsey Hogan (both deceased), he was happily married to his wife Margaret Burks Hogan for almost 53 years.

Survived by his wife of the residence, their children, Jennifer Hogan Macleod and Jessica Lynne Hogan, and three beloved grandsons, Weston O. Kihlmire, and James M.A. Richardson and Zachary T.E. Richardson, all of Danville. He also leaves behind a spoiled beagle named Belle, who acted as his shadow for the last 11 years.

Jim was born in Danville, Virginia and spent most of his life in Ringgold, Virginia, was a graduate of Dan River High School, and attended VPI Extension in Danville, Virginia.

He Began his working career as a telephone lineman at C&P Telephone Company and later became an over the road truck driver for many years. He moved on to work at Womack Electric Company and retired after 20 years.

A man who never met a stranger, one of Jim's biggest joys in life was helping other people in any way that he could. He actively volunteered for his entire life, including work at Kentuck Volunteer Fire Department, God's Storehouse and God's Pit Crew of Danville. He was a Lifetime Member of the Danville Life Saving Crew, having reached the level of Paramedic and past President of the DRMC Auxiliary.

He was a longtime Master Mason in the Ramah Lodge before it disbanded, and continued in Roman Eagle Lodge No. 122. He was also a proud member of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, as well as a member of the Improved Order of Red Men, Poquoson Tribe 124.

A man of deep Christian faith, he was a member of Hillcrest Baptist Church in Danville, VA.

Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Home North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Hogan family. The family will hold a private memorial service at a later date.

It is requested that in honor of Jim's love of giving, donations be made to any favorite charity in lieu of flowers.

“ I am so sorry to learn of Jim's passing. He dedicated his life to helping others in their time of need. I worked with Jim at the Life Saving Crew and with Margaret while we were both board members of the Humane Society. I have not seen Jim or Margaret since Joni and I moved to Florida over 30 years ago. Few are as giving as Jim was during his life.

“ To the Entire Family:

*I wish to convey my sincere sympathy in the loss of your Dear Family Member!
Jim was a good person whom I considered a friend over many years. He always had a smile and a calm, easy manner.*

My thoughts and prayers shall be with all of you during this difficult time.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Jim's death. Our family crossed paths all during our life. My Mom kept Jim some days when his Mom worked at about age 5. Then we were across the street from you all on Capri Ct for 25 Years. Then we moved to Ringgold to be neighbors again! Margaret you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers! My children are so sad too.
