“ Jimmie and Ronald and family, I regret the news of your loss and share with many many others fond memories of Mrs. Cox and days at Spring Garden. You have been most fortunate to have such a significant parent in your lives. The instruction she gave you and her students are life lessons that become invaluable and desperately needed today. May Almighty God grant you strength in the days ahead and always. In sympathy... Charles Adams, Belmont, Reidsville, NC

Ronald, James, and Families: We were so sorry to hear of Jamie's death. I loved her Christmas letter and had planned to respond, but waited too late. She was a good Christian example for all of you and anyone she met. Love, Jason & Betty Cox Collie
