A native and life-long resident of Caswell County, Jane was born August 17, 1943. She was married April 24, 1965 to the late Henry Thomas (“Tom”) Solomon, Jr. They had one son, Thom Solomon (Raleigh, NC), who survives his parents.

Jane was affectionately known as “Nane,” a nickname given to her by the family of the late Elizabeth “Libba” Walker, who was her best friend, and as Aunt Jane to numerous nieces and nephews.

Jane attended Bartlett Yancey Senior High School and worked most of her career in manufacturing for Glen Raven Mills before retiring from Royal Park. She and her husband were tireless workers with a strong belief in helping others.
