“ I just found out about Janice and I could not BELIEVE it.. She was such a wonderful person and friend , whom I loved so much and we have shared so many good times and sad times together, Her and Doug was always such great people and my clients that I really got to know well. Janice and I spent along time together in March and she always had to tell you about her wonderful DAUGHTER and grandchildren , how good they were to her and how much she loved them. She will be greatly missed, but GOD has gained another wonderful ANGEL . GOD BLESS YOU ALL

LOVE YOU

“ Having only moved to this area in December I only had the pleasure of knowing Janice for a couple of month. I know every day that we worked together she always put a smile on my face. It was a pleasure and a honor having been able to work with Janice the short time we had together. My prayers and condolences go out to her family. May god hold you in his arms and enjoy your time with with your love.
