September 3, 1977 - November 19, 2025

Jason Colenda Harris, 48, of Danville, passed away on Wednesday, November 19, 2025 at his residence surrounded by his family.

Born on September 3, 1977, in Danville, he was a son of William Robert “Bobby” Harris, II and Treva Hope Colenda (Leon), all who survive.

Jason had a profound talent of precision and detail that set him apart as an artist and craftsman. Aside from his many artistic talents, he enjoyed cooking, building legos with his children, was an avid seashell collector, putt-putt enthusiast, and was a life-long lover of skateboarding. His happy place was at the coast.

In addition to his parents and his wife, Karmen, Jason is survived by his three beautiful children he was so proud of, Meredith Hailey, Natalie Lauryn, and William Preston Harris; a brother, Patrick Harris; a sister, Jillian Harris (Nick); his father and mother-in-law, Harry and Anna Teague; sisters-in-law, Christi

Esparza (David), Karen Hardy (James), Corrie Bobe (Julian); aunts and uncles, Richard Harris, Carolyn Garrett (Joe), Andrea Short (Dwight), Lavinia Buchberger, Sandy Mitchell, Don Vipperman and Dee Colenda; his nieces Harleigh Esparza and Kendyl Neal; nephews Nicholas and Ryan Bobe; honorary daughters Sadie Gunn and Stephanie Villalobos; and numerous wonderful cousins.

“ Jason and I went to high school together. We would often hang out at his house and draw. I remember him making his first homemade tattoo gun. He was one of my best friends, such a gentleman, and I will forever hold on to our memories.

“ *I was a client of Jason's for a long time. Every time i was in his chair i just had so much fun; he talked about his family and was so proud. I have been thinking about your family since i heard the news, and cannot express how sorry I am to hear about his passing.
