

Jason Andrew Moore

December 17, 1975 - December 31, 2012

Jason Andrew Moore (Bam-Bam), 37, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, December 31, 2012 at his residence.

He was born December 17, 1975 a son of Wilda S. Moore Clear and Raymond Clay Moore.

Jason was a professional equestrian photographer for Shawn McMillian Photography in Akin, SC. He was a member of "The Church" on Westover Drive in Danville, VA.

He was predeceased by his maternal grandfather, Randall W. Sellers and paternal grandparents Charlie and Louis Moore, and a cousin, Tyler "Tab" Brown.

In addition to his parents, Jason is survived by his dear brother, Matthew Clear (USA Air Force); maternal grandmother, Jeanette Sellers; friend Joan Moore; the love of his life, Jamie Wilkerson; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

Fishing with his dad and friend Buck, and also a game of pool with Brad, Jared, Jake, Kevin and Thomas was always competitive.

He loved to play cards and watch the Price is Right. Talking about ball and spending time with Kristie and Ryan was fun. He also enjoyed working with his friends and family at Pooxies Restaurant.

Jason (Bam-Bam) will be sadly missed by everyone. He was dearly loved.

A Memorial Service will be conducted at 7:00 PM. Friday, January 4, 2013 from Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel with the Reverend Jerry Roberts and the Reverend Brian Edwards officiating.

The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service from 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM at the funeral home and at other times at 126 Sellers Road, Danville, VA and 421 Wyatt Drive,

Danville, VA.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Moore Family.

“ I went to school with Jason and dated him while in high school. Jason was a great person. I had not seen him in a long time. I remember we used to go to beyond video and shoot pool, he taught me how to play. I will miss him. I am truly sorry for your loss. I pray for each of you that you may find comfort during this time.
