“ Sending thoughts and prayers to the family during this difficult time

“ so sorry to read about Jean in the paper today. She was our mailcarrier for many many years and have not seen her but once since she retired. Always a delight, to talk with her, when she would have a package to bring to our home. The one thought that always comes to mind when I think of her, is in 1998, when I lost my mom, she shared with me that there was no greater loss than losing a child. When reading her obituary today, I had to remember this conversation, and know that she is with her daughter today, once again. All the family will be reunited in the years to come.

My prayers are for the family during this difficult time. May you too, find precious memories to hold dear to your heart in the days/weeks/months ahead.
