“ LoisAnn, Tom & family.....
Jeane was a huge part of my life, my church family. She will be greatly missed. I can remember her and the quartet from our church singing Stepping on the Clouds we'll see Jesus! and on the Jericho Road, and many others! All the little things she did for not only her family but all of us! She was a mother to many :) I am glad I got to be with her for a little bit on Sunday and when I said I love you, she said I love you too!!!! and her singing Jesus Loves Me along with Marie and I. We all have many precious memories to treasure. She is healthy/healed and safe in Jesus' arms! and enjoying her Heavenly reunion with all of her family and Nannie :) SENDING BIG HUGS & PRAYERS TO ALL!!

“ I had the pleasure of working with Mrs. Barber at Schewels. She taught me so much I still use till this day. She used to make us Christmas Ornaments every year. She came to see this past Christmas bringing us home made goodies. She was truly a great woman. I loved to hear her laugh and gorgeous smile. Love you Mrs. Barber

“ *Lois and family,
I will miss hearing Jeane's voice on the other end of the phone. I am honored that she chose to include me in her genealogy search into our Wells family. I will really miss her.*
Love,
