“ Nathan, Tommy, Dale, and rest of family, I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of your precious mother. Nathan, I can't remember a time when I came to a get together where you were playing drums that your mother wasn't there looking so proud that YOU were her son. I am glad that I got to meet her at those parties. I know God took another Angel home and that you and your brothers and sisters will really miss her. Praying for comfort for you all.

“ Dear Sellers Family,
My heart sighed when I saw your mother's obituary this morning. I know she is the dear lady who truly was the glue that held your family together, as you wrote. From the time I met her when Wilda, Jane and Poogie were all in our teens, I saw her as a gentle and kind lady who worked hard to care for all of you. I appreciated the fact that she trusted me to take her children in my Jeep to Camp Shawnee and Scout activities. (She was brave!)
My prayers are with you, my dear friends.

Love,
