“ I was a student at Halifax County High School from 1960-1965. If memory serves me correctly, Miss Wagner was my English/American Literature teacher in 1963-1965. She may have been my guidance counselor also. I remember a very nice lady, tough but fair, and a good teacher. Good memories of her classes, even if she did work us hard.

“ She was always Miss Wagner to me. This woman could convince me to do whatever she needed. No was never a word I used around her and at the same time she never said no to my requests. She was a remarkable woman, set in her ways. The world could use a few more Miss Wagners.

“ I came to know Jennie through Pittsylvania County Retired Teachers Association, an organization of which she was President for 8 years and grew its membership to its highest level. She was a wise lady, always keeping abreast of current issues affecting public education and educators. As a mentor and leader she has inspired many and contributed much to both students and teachers.

“ Mrs. Jennie Wagner was truly an inspiration and an advocate for those she served in schools. I had the opportunity to work under her leadership as a teacher. She taught me by example to stand for right even when you are standing alone. I enjoyed our conversations and visits. Rest in Peace Mrs. Wagner, your legacy will live on.
