“ Grandma- You've been there since day one, supporting me every step of the way. You were the toughest and most genuine person I've ever known, and I've learned from you how to be strong. You taught me kindness, to never feel too sorry for myself, that hard work pays off; you gave me the passion to cook, you showed me that libraries are wonderful. Because of you I've had the opportunity to travel, from Georgia to Yellowstone, and I'm thankful for the memories, experiences, and chances I've had to learn about the world; I'll especially miss going to Dollywood with you or playing mini golf in Pigeon Forge. How do you say goodbye to someone that's been such an integral part of your life? I wish I could make molasses cookies with you one more time, have one more Christmas with you, share one more midnight snack, one more adventure, discuss one more good book- you truly made and were a part of the best memories of my life and so many others. Love you forever, grandma.

“ It was great pleasure to work with this wonderful lady for many years. She was a great teacher and co worker. I worked in the cafeteria but as cashier and manager I got to interact with Mrs. Hunt almost daily. She had great dedication to her students at Stony Mill Elementary. RIP Mrs. Hunt. I will always have sweet memories of you.

“ There are no words for the sadness I feel, George, Andy, Dan, and family members. But words are not needed so much as prayers and loving presence. And prayers I lovingly offer for each of you, for your comfort and peace and a deepening faith that a loving God has a place of perfect peace and joy for each of us who love and trust in Him, and that our brief time on this earth is not to be compared with the eternity God has prepared. May you find solace in your loved ones and in the promises of the Christ who died that we may live forever.
