“ Jessica: We are very sorry to hear about Scott's passing. Scott's dad and i were first cousins. The last time we saw Scott was at Danview Restaurant with some of the family and enjoyed talking to him. Scott was a very likeable person. We know now that he is in a better place heaven and one day we will see him again. Our prayers go out to the entire family.

“ I was in shock hearing about Scott's passing. Scott had been like a son to me for many years and I will miss hearing him call me “ma”. Scott was very passionate about EMS and loved to teach others. Until his health began to decline Scott was always willing to lend a helping hand. I will miss getting messages from Scott as we talked about things that endeared us both. My heartfelt prayers go out to Jessica, his son and daughters. Holley his sister and any other family members. This is very saddening especially at this time of year.

“ My heart breaks at hearing of Scott's passing.....we had quite a few good conversations, observations, and him sharing information concerning emergency care, which he was proficient at.....to leave this Earth for Heaven at any time of the year is certainly hard for those who remain, family and friends, but at Christmas it is especially difficult.....however the celebration of Jesus being born as God in human form to live, teach and ultimately die in order that all who believe in Him will have Eternal life with Him in Heaven can help us in knowing that through the tears of loss, those same tears can be of certainty that an Eternity free from pain and suffering awaits Scott and all other believers from the moment that last human breath is taking.....Rest in Peace my friend, and enjoy your Eternity with your best friend, Jesus Christ
