

Joyce Cole

August 30, 1940 - August 28, 2011

Joyce Ann Cole, 70, of 2344 Riverside Dr. died, Sunday, August 28, 2011 in Danville. Born August 30, 1940 in Fort Payne, Alabama, she was the Daughter of the late Roy Shafer & Roxie Wooten Shafer. Early in life she had a great passion for horses , riding & showing English horses in the local area. She was very artistic becoming quite accomplished at painting, pottery, woodworking, sewing, needlepoint & even cake decorating. Her Secretarial & Bookkeeping Jobs took her down many different paths over the years. Prior to Retirement she became a Private Caregiver, becoming very attached to her clients. After retirement she joined the Dixie Chicks local Red Hat Club, she was very enthusiastic & enjoyed it immensely, but quickly declined in health & sadly her participation was cut short. She is survived by two sons, Jeffrey Cole & wife Nancy, of Zephyrhills Fla. ; Brian Cole, of Axton, Va. ; one daughter, Leigh Ann Ballou & husband Lon of Cooperton, Ok. ; one sister, Lola Payne of Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. ; two grandsons, one granddaughter and one great-granddaughter. A Memorial Service is planned in Fort Payne, AL at Wilson Funeral Home. The family requests that memorial donations be made to the American Dystonia Society, 17 Suffolk Lane, Princeton Jct., NJ 08550-1217. Wrenn-Yeatts North Main is serving the Cole family.
