“ My heart felt sympathy to the family of this wonderful lady. She was truly a blessing to me in the years that I knew her ,always helping someone with the most beautiful smile and a heart that never stopped giving & loving. She is walking the streets of gold that she so deserves-no pain- only joy forever ! WE miss her - she will be waiting when we get there!
I thank God that I had the opportunity to know her . She will be missed !

It was a wonderful moment to have the conversation we had in the hospital that evening. It was Michael, Joyce and myself. Joyce's spirit and sense of calmness was moving and I had no doubt she was at peace with the decisions she had made.
