

Judi Handy

May 22, 1943 - December 29, 2023

Judith “Judi” Evon Boulware Handy, 80, of Danville, VA died on Friday, December 29, 2023 at Annie Penn Hospital in Reidsville, NC after being in declining health for the last 20 years.

Judi was born in Danville, VA on May 22, 1943, a daughter of the late Henry Lee Boulware and Phoebe Anne Hopkins Boulware. She spent all of her life in the Danville area where she worked for Dan River Mills as a weaver for 36 years until her retirement.

She had a strong passion for sports and also found pleasure in solving crosswords and word search puzzles during her spare time.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her sisters, Glenda Owens and Susie Boulware.

Judi is survived by her loving son, Darren Handy of Danville, VA; her grandson, Jarren Handy; a special niece and caregiver, Leslie Sheets; her great nieces, Ashlee and Briana Jarrett and Caribbea Sheets; and several nieces and nephews. Her family cherished her and her absence will be deeply felt.

A graveside service will be conducted on Wednesday, January 3, 2024 at 2:00

P.M. at Danville Memorial Gardens with the Reverend Wade Rowland officiating.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Handy family.

“ Even though Judi was 3 years older than me, she was the cousin I hung out with most when our family visited Danville (from Norfolk). She was so funny, & I loved to be with her. I know Judi will be greatly missed by all her family. My deepest condolences. God bless you all.

“ Judi was my cousin. She lived with us in Norfolk, VA when I was just a toddler. I don't remember her being there but she told me stories about stuff I did and said. One of the stories she would tell was that, as we all sat around the dinner table and Judi found something amusing, she would laugh her loud, boisterous laugh. I didn't know the right words to ask her what she was laughing at so apparently I would ask her, "What's so funny about you?" She always remembered that and thought it was so cute 😊
See you on the other side, cousin. Rest in peace.

“ Darren, Jarren, Leslie, Ashley and extended family, my prayers that God’s comfort and peace will be with you in the days ahead. May you cherish sweet memories of Judi. Growing up, I always looked forward to our Danville visits and hanging out with cousins, especially Judi and Susie. Cousins are the best and I will miss Judi, but will see her again. Love you Judi!
